Civil Service Examination

The U. S. Civil Service Commission will hold a competitive examination at Morrisville on June 24 for the position of clerk in the Morrisville postoffice. Information and the required application blank can be secured by addressing O. B. Spaulding, ass't postmaster, Morrisville, or District Secretary B. L. Falconer, Boston.

The Johnson Normal

This week is closing week at the Johnson Normal School and the largest class in its history, a class of eighty, will be graduated. Under Dr. Peaks, who has been at the head of the school the past three years, a splendid work has been accomplished—the school having grown from thirty students to 126. Dr. Peaks retires with the good will of the students, as well as that of all who have the interest of the Normal at heart and there is general regret that "the powers that be" could not see their way clear to retain him at its head.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK

Forty-Sixth Graduation at Peoples Academy Closes Tonight. Twenty Six in Class

With the exercises at town hall this evening the forty-sixth graduation at Peoples Academy and a Commencement Week filled with interest and pleasure will be brought to a close. Beginning with the class play last Thursday evening all the available time has been occupied and a large number of visitors from outside have been present at the various events. The class of 1916 numbers twenty-six, which is only two less than the class of 1902, which was the largest in the history of the school.

The following students comprise the class in the different courses and will receive diplomas at the graduation exercises at town hall tonight:—

Latin-Scientific—Elizabeth Powers, Dorothy Lang, William Meacham.

English Course—Harold Battye, Florence Cornell, Arnold Duffey, Ray Smalley, Thelma Edmunds, Earl Keeler, Bal-lou Towne, Olie Bedell, Linwood Law.

Commercial Course—Ellis Melendy, Clarence Bates, Mae Cleary, Bertrand Hubbell, Minnie Bliss, Ruth Mudgett, Vera Gilbert.

Teacher Training—Elvira Gale*, Mildred Gale*, Nida Grant, Alice Hayford, Glee Merriam, Rossie Perry, Florence Stewart*, Nelly Tyndall, Leafe Kinney, Mabel Lackard*, Florence Martin*, Elsie Merriam.

*Post-graduate.

Senior Class Play

The Senior class play which opened the events of Commencement Week last Thursday and Friday evenings was a success and the innovation of presenting the play during Commencement Week seems to meet with quite general approval. "The Choice" by Marion Short, while lacking in action and at times a trifle slow, calls for some good acting by all the principal characters and the cast chosen for this presentation was a happy one, all of the parts being taken in an especially creditable manner.

The plot of the piece centers in the unsuccessful attempts made to dwarf the honest love of Gordon Barclay, a Yale man, for Marion Simmons a pretty and unaffected country girl and is a wholesome story of to-day, bringing out some striking features of life in widely different circles. Ray L. Smalley, as Barclay, and Miss Avie C. Badger as Marion Simmons, both looked and acted their parts in a refreshingly natural and pleasing style, both interpreting their lines well, while refraining from overdoing them. Bertrand E. Hubbell, as Teddy Farnum, Linwood B. Law as Richard Henderson, who finally won the heart of Elaine, and Arnold G. Duffey as Charles Mason, members of Barclay's fraternity, were real college men and added a realistic touch to the piece, especially at the scene at the Jewett home.

Miss Vera M. Gilbert, as Mrs. Henry Tate Kirkland, a New York society woman, made much of the part, her stage presence and acting being above the usual in an amateur performance, while the work of Miss Vida Grant, as Mrs. Simmons, mother of Marion, was a bit of character acting that would pass muster among professionals. In the part of Elaine Jewett, a society girl, of dual impulses, there was a chance for some good acting and Miss Thelma Edmunds made the part stand out as one of, if not the most, important characters in the play. Her work in the third act was especially strong. Miss Ruth E. Mudgett was very good in the role of Elaine's invalid sister, while Miss Merle Smalley, as Patty Cloverleaf, looked and acted the part of the modern society girl to the satisfaction of all. Miss Elizabeth L. Powers, as Sarah Apple-gate Slissy, Farnum's dressmaker, was at her best and her interpretation of the role of the eccentric country gossip was a fine bit of acting and added life to the whole piece. Too much praise cannot be given Miss Esther Greene, who took the place of Miss Dorothy Lang, who was cast for the part of Betsy Scroggins, Mrs. Simmons' hired help, on three days' notice. She did the part to perfection and got a laugh at every appearance.

Music was furnished by the P. A. orchestra, led by Mr. Merrill, both evenings. On Friday evening Miss Esther Greene gave the La Russe dance, which was a part of the program of the Physical Culture exhibition, as a specialty, which added much to the entertainment.

Carlos A. Gile was one of two children of Albert and Almira Wilkins Gile. He was born in Craftsbury, Vt., Jan. 26, 1860. When he was three years of age his father died while serving in the Civil War and two years later he moved with his mother to Morrisville, where he has since resided continuously. He received his education at Peoples Academy and when 19 years of age he entered the employ of the late A. M. Churchill, where he learned the tin-smith and plumbing trade, remaining with the firm many years and twenty-one years ago, in company with W. F. Churchill, he purchased the business, which was continued under the firm name of Gile & Churchill for six years, when Mr. Gile sold his interest to D. L. Sanders. In company with C. B. Greene he purchased the Morrisville Foundry about fourteen years ago and much credit was due him for the success of this business during the twelve years he was identified it. He was obliged to dispose of his interest in the business because of ill-health. He was united in marriage on Nov. 7, 1883, to Miss Lizzie Hamel of Morris-town.

Junior-Senior Reception

The Junior reception to the Seniors was given at Academy hall last Saturday evening and as usual was one of the most pleasant events of Commencement Week. The hall was very prettily decorated with the senior class colors of red and white, the decoration scheme being carried out effectively in orchestra "corner," where the musicians were stationed behind a lattice work gate under an archway. Miniature flags also were conspicuous in the decorations. The class officers were assisted in receiving by the faculty and the hall was transformed for the occasion into a large reception room, easy chairs, divans etc., giving a homelike and very pleasing effect.

Following the reception a dance was enjoyed the music, which was furnished by P. A. orchestra being of a high order. Pleasing features of this part of the program were the screen dance, given by Misses Avie Badger, Esther Greene, Merle Smalley, Barbara Small, Edythe Stewart and Isabel Harris and the selection by the octette, composed of Paul Burnham, Carroll Silloway, Nora Greene, Mildred Powell, Beatrice Morrill, Nelly Tyndall, Harold Ober and Raymond Ellis.

Refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake were served by the following young ladies, becomingly gowned in Japanese costumes: Misses Doris Stone, Doris Graves, Nettie Burnor and Bernice Bassett.

Death of Carl A. Gile

The death of Carl A. Gile, one of Morrisville's best known citizens, who had been critically ill for the past two weeks, occurred Tuesday morning at 6:40 at his residence on Bridge street, death being due to heart trouble and complications, from which he had been suffering for about three years. His condition had been considered serious for several weeks and four weeks ago he went to Burlington for treatment, where he remained a week. Two weeks ago last Sunday night he was taken worse, since which time his condition had been very critical. Last Saturday the symptoms were slightly more encouraging, but the change was only temporary, and Monday it was known that the end was near.

The funeral will be held from the home Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. R. D. Cramer of the Universalist church officiating. Members of Mount Vernon Lodge, F. & A. M., and visiting brethren, will attend in a body and the Masonic burial service will be given at the grave. Interment will be made in Riverside cemetery in this village. The bearers will be Dr. George L. Bates, C. L. Gates, W. F. Sherman, A. G. Small, F. O. Lunt and W. F. Churchill, with the employees of the Morrisville Foundry Co. as pall bearers.

Carl A. Gile was one of two children of Albert and Almira Wilkins Gile. He was born in Craftsbury, Vt., Jan. 26, 1860. When he was three years of age his father died while serving in the Civil War and two years later he moved with his mother to Morrisville, where he has since resided continuously. He received his education at Peoples Academy and when 19 years of age he entered the employ of the late A. M. Churchill, where he learned the tin-smith and plumbing trade, remaining with the firm many years and twenty-one years ago, in company with W. F. Churchill, he purchased the business, which was continued under the firm name of Gile & Churchill for six years, when Mr. Gile sold his interest to D. L. Sanders. In company with C. B. Greene he purchased the Morrisville Foundry about fourteen years ago and much credit was due him for the success of this business during the twelve years he was identified it. He was obliged to dispose of his interest in the business because of ill-health. He was united in marriage on Nov. 7, 1883, to Miss Lizzie Hamel of Morris-town.

The deceased was for years an active member of Mount Vernon Lodge, F. & A. M., had served in the various stations and was Master for two years. He was also a member of Burlington Lodge, No. 918, B. P. O. Elks. He was for many years a leader in the band and orchestra circles, being an expert cornetist, and gave of both time and money in the interests of the local band. He was for many years a member of the Water and Light Board and to him as much as any one man is due the success of these two departments. He was a member of the band at the time of his death.

Carl will long be remembered because of his strong personality, but to his friends, and they were legion, the trait that will remain undimmed after others may be forgotten, will be his unselfishness and thoughtfulness for others. The little things that he did every day with no desire for reward, were an index to his big-heartedness and genuineness of character.

He is survived by an aged mother, a wife and one daughter, Miss Alice Gile, Chicago, who has been here for the past two weeks, and one sister, Mrs. B. F. Drown, of Morrisville. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved ones.
